

Train-the-Trainer: English as Medium of Instruction training

14th - 18th of November 2022
 Room A.3.03, Emil-Figge-Str 42, 44227 Dortmund

Course description: Educators are facing the challenge of teaching in a language which is neither their mother tongue nor in many cases the mother tongue of their students. The English as Medium of Instruction (EMI) course aims to help educators to successfully plan and execute their educational programs in English. The course consists of an online 90-minute kick-off, 3 days full-time on-site training, and a closing 90-minute online session on day 5. This is individualized for academic staff who are quite new to teaching / lecturing in English and who will benefit from hands-on training and practical material and tips.

Benefits: Certificate, access to an asynchronous eLearning platform, EMI library (articles & research), EMI professional development tools

Target audience: Lecturers, trainers, PhD students

Trainer: Jason Skeet
